

What is the FNHRA?

The Federal Nursing Home Reform Act (FNHRA), also referred to as the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1987 (OBRA 87), is the guiding statute for nursing facility law. It details what skilled nursing facilities, including nursing homes and assisted living facilities, must provide their residents.

What is § 1983?

42 U.S.C. § 1983 makes any person who deprives a citizen of a Federally granted right while acting under color of state law can be held civilly liable to that citizen.

"Under color of state law" means acting with authority of the government.
